The general nature of the business to be transacted by this Corporation includes the conducting of construction projects, various other related businesses, the acquisition, restoration, and sale of motor vehicles, and such other activities as are permitted by law.

The Corporation may purchase, lease or otherwise acquire, real and personal property, and to own, mortgage, pledge, sell, assign, transfer, or otherwise dispose of, and to invest in, trade in, deal in and with, goods, wares, merchandise, real and personal property, and services, of every class, kind, and description.

The Corporation may do all and everything necessary and proper for the accomplishment of any of the purposes or the attaining of any of the objects or the furtherance of any of the powers enumerated in these Articles of Incorporation or any amendment hereof, necessary or incidental to the protection and benefit of the Corporation, as principal, agent, director, trustee or otherwise, and, in general, either alone or in association with other corporations, firms or individuals, carry on any lawful business necessary or incidental to the accomplishment of the purposes or objects of the Corporation, whether or not such business is similar in nature to the purposes and objects set forth in these Articles of Incorporation or any amendment hereof.

The foregoing paragraphs shall be construed as enumerating both objects and powers of the Corporation; and it is hereby expressly provided that the foregoing enumeration of specific powers shall not be held to limit or restrict in any manner the powers of this Corporation, it being intended that this Corporation shall exercise all powers generally granted to corporations under the laws of the State of Florida.

The Corporation shall not, however, indemnify any Director or Officer with respect to matters as to which he/she shall be finally adjudged in any such action, suit or proceeding to have been guilty of fraud or material misrepresentation to the Corporation, its Board of Directors, its stockholders, or any other person, nor in respect of any matter on which any settlement or compromise is effected, if the total expense, including the cost of such settlement, shall substantially exceed the expense which might reasonably be incurred by such Director or Officer in conducting such litigation to a final conclusion.
