Dear Sir/Madam:

I have received a statement of Dissolution in the mail on Friday, October 26, 2001. I called your office on the following Monday, October 29, 2001. In discussing the issue, I explained that I am a single employee company and that I have been working in South Florida for the past six months rather than at the home office in Jacksonville. During this period, mail has been reaching me intermittently. If your office sent a billing or statement to me earlier, it is very likely that it was lost or returned as in other instances with my mail. I was unaware that the Corporate fee was due. I do not wish to dissolve the company and I would appreciate your assistance in the matter of dismissing the reinstatement fee.

I am enclosing a check for the amount of $158.75 and the Profit Annual Report form.

I have made new arrangements to insure that mail is transferred in a more reliable manner.

Thank you and Best Regards,

William von Eberstein, P.E., GC
