Re: Uniform Business Report

Please consider this memo as a letter of explanation and request to waive fee for late filing.

After having an accountant assist me with the forming of my corporation I changed to an accountant that was closer to my area and easier for me to communicate with. In doing this I was ill advised that I did not need to be incorporated and to close my corporate checking account and to do nothing else with the corporation. Consequently I did not receive the first UBR forms. I then contacted another accountant and advised him on the previous information I was given and realized that it would be in my best interest to be incorporated. I did receive the second UBR notice and have completed it. I am asking that you consider my explanation and accept the fee of $150.00 that I have enclosed.

Respectfully,

Stephanie L. Hummel
