APPEAL TO REINSTATE MY CORPORATION

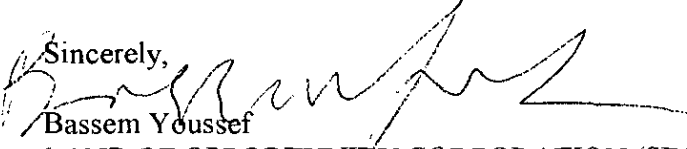

Dear Ma'am/Sir :

As I discovered your very informative web site 2 days ago, www.sunbiz.org, I decided to check what is there about my business. I was surprised to find out that my business, LAND OF OPPORTUNITY CORPORATION, is "INACTIVE." As I called in your office, your very helpful staff informed me that LAND OF OPPORTUNITY CORP. was forced into dissolution because I did not file the Annual Report and pay $150.00.

I really regret not sending it on time, however, I never got any notice or paperwork concerning this specific requirement as this is my first year in business ever. Since December 1999, I had very hectic time as I moved 3 times and probably the paperwork got directed to one of those addresses. I am not blaming your department for anything; it is my responsibility to insure reception of my mail. I am appealing to you to waive any charges beyond the $150 Annual Filing fee. This is my first year of business, and I am just getting on my feet. I apologize for missing the deadline. However, it was beyond my control as I moved many times as I had some health problems and due to my ignorance of the process with State Of Florida. Under no circumstance was my intention NOT to comply with your rules or regulations. I hope you will understand my situation and waive all the charges and allow my "baby" business to get on its feet. I am committed now that I will educate myself about all of your processes and relevant fees.

I hope this appeal will be accepted. I appreciate your time reading my appeal and examining it. Accept my most sincere regards and thanks.

Sincerely,

Bassem Youssef
