To Hon. L. Ray Conner,

The purpose of this letter is to explain what must appear to be negligence and unprofessionalism on my part.

May I first extend my apologies for any inconveniences I may have caused you. Please allow me to explain. In or around May of 2000 we were forced to endure the loss of our business and all equipment to operate a business to an unexplained fire. Needless to say we had no fire insurance. Suffering to continue our only means of support, forced us to try to rebuild our business from our home, car, or wherever we could. Two months later

I was told I needed an emergency hysterectomy, once again we had no medical insurance. Feeling as though things had to change and get better, I received probably the worst news of my life the day I was being brought into surgery. Results were given to me that I had a massive brain tumor that would also need emergency surgery. Neglecting my responsibilities of returning my Business reports (U. B. R.) for 2000 and 2001 were due totally to my illness and recuperation time. The surgery I endured was horrendous. Recovery time was long and in all honesty I forgot (many) many things and my short term memory was totally gone. Thanks to my family and most of all thanks to God, my memory has returned and my life is finally returning. However in November of 2001 I had to have a total knee replacement surgery, thus once again taking me away from my responsibilities.

Please pardon my lack of adhering to due dates. I have told all of this to you not to offer an excuse, but to extend to you an honest explanation. I plead for an exoneration of penalties and late fees and respectfully ask for the reinstatement of my Corporation.
I can assure you I am back to full health and will stay current from this date on with all my U. B. R.'s. Thank you for the use of your valuable time in reviewing this letter.

I will be Thankful & Grateful for any decision you decide on.

Gratefully
Patricia Vlamakis
