Re: Chesley Construction Services, Inc.
2000 Uniform Business Report

To Whom It May Concern:

On Friday, July 7, 2000, we received a second notice for filing the above report. We never received a first notice. This corporation was formed during the last quarter of 1999. We had an attorney set up the corporation, and I thought the corporate filing fee was paid for 2000. This attorney is now spending the summer crossing the United States and is somewhere in Alaska, so I can't turn to him for any answers.

I called the number on the filing form, and the gentleman who answered, suggested I immediately send in a check for $150.00, along with a letter of explanation. We file corporate reports on Carswell Construction, Inc, B.C.O. Inc. and Carswell Real Estate and Development, Inc., so I am aware of the need to file in a timely manner. All of these reports were filed by the due date. If a first notice on these corporations had not been received, I would have known to call and request a duplicate, since we have been filing corporate reports on these companies for years.

My ignorance in not knowing that I was supposed to receive a first notice for Chesley was the only reason I did not notify the Division of Corporations that the notice had not been sent to this office. The second notice was actually the first received.

Since this is a small company, and a difference of $450.00 is a great deal of money, your understanding in this matter would be sincerely appreciated.

Yours very truly,

Nancy J. Carswell
