To Whom It May Concern,

I am writing this letter hoping you can help me.

I opened a corporation in October of 1999, The Tanning Zone, Inc. The Federal ID Number is: 65-0959092. I had just put a deposit down on a space in a shopping center for a tanning salon. I didn't have a physical address as of yet and, therefore, put the address as my old place of employment. I explained that to a gentleman on the phone, giving him the specific details; that my business was under construction, the opening would not be for awhile, etc.

About 2 days ago, I went to get my Sales Tax ID and was told my corporation was inactive, because I hadn't sent in the annual report(s). You can imagine my surprise, especially when my grand opening is less than 2 weeks away. I can promise you I didn't expect that. The business was in the process of being built. I assumed everything would begin when the business opened.

Upon learning that in order to reinstate it I would have to pay fees and penalties totaling over $900.00, I felt it necessary to contact you.

I am asking your department to please reinstate my corporation, and, moreover, to waive any penalties incurred, as I had no idea any such action had taken place.

I would appreciate any assistance you could afford me in this matter. The offer of a quick response is requested.

Sincerely,

Julie Rives, President
The Tanning Zone, Inc.
