TO : Florida Department of State
Katherine Harris
Secretary of State

FROM : Edward B. Owens Jr.

This letter is in reference to my failure to properly file my corporation with the state. I was unaware that I was to do this on a yearly basis and my neglect to do so was not an intentional act to avoid paying my dues to the state. My mail has been irregular so I have started using a p. o. box and had assumed that I was receiving all of my mail I have received all of my other tax papers etc. I understand from your office that this is not the case. I have enclosed on the form my post office box number as well as my business address, which I have just gotten in the last few weeks. I write this note that you consider waiving the penalty for I am just starting my first business and I assure you this will never again be a problem for your office. The person that I talked to at your office said to send a check for $ 150.00 (enclosed) with an explanation of why I did not file on time. Any consideration would be greatly appreciated.

SINCERELY,

Edward B. Owens Jr.
