Re: FEI # 65-0649135

Dear Sir or Madam:

Recently we've come into discovering that you have reissued a Uniform Business Report for our corporation to file. Having filed this report back in April, my secretary disregarded the documentation, which within the last week or so, I discovered on her desk. Upon opening the document, I realized it was for the same filing procedure, which as stated, was previously filed by us. Earlier than on this discovery, we've known that the check we wrote (check #2495, in the amount of $150.00) has not cleared. We had no reason to be concerned over the check's status, as we have always assumed these filings can sometimes take a longer process as regard to government agency procedures, et al. and we find that eventually the check does show up on our statement.

I am obviously more concerned now upon the knowledge that further to receiving a second filing notice that seems to indicate you never received our payment that the amount due on the second notice is much greater than the first. We made our payment and processed the document at the time when it was due as our only deadline goal. Under the circumstances, I am asking your cooperation in conducting a search of your records in an attempt to locate my apparently misplaced documents. In the event this is not resolved I ask that you resolve to allow us to send a replacement check for the amount originally submitted of $150.00. We have attached copies of the original document and check as our only proof that this payment and filing was submitted to your office on April 21, 2001.

Sincerely,

Olga Delgado, Registered Agent
