ARTICLE X: AMENDMENT

These Articles of Incorporation may be amended in the manner provided by law. Every amendment shall be approved by the Board of Directors, proposed by them to stockholders, and approved at a stockholders' meeting by a majority of the stock entitled to vote thereon, unless all the Directors and all the stockholders sign a written statement manifesting their intention that a certain amendment of these Articles of Incorporation be made.

ARTICLE XI: MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

The following additional provisions for the regulation of the business and for the conduct of the affairs of the corporation, and creating, dividing, limiting and regulating the powers of the Corporation, its stockholders and Directors, are hereby adopted as a part of these Articles of Incorporation:

- a. The Board of Directors from time to time shall determine whether and to what extent, and at what times and places, and under what conditions and regulations, the accounts and books of the Corporation or any of them, shall be open to the inspection of the stockholders, and no stockholder shall have any right to inspect any account or document of the corporation except as conferred by a Statute or authorized by the Board of Directors, or by a resolution of the stockholders.
- b. No person shall be required to own, hold or control stock in the corporation as a condition precedent to holding an office in this Corporation.
- c. The Directors may prescribe a method or methods for replacement of lost certificates, and to prescribe reasonable conditions by way of security upon the issue of new certificates therefor.
- d. The Corporation shall have the power to include in its By-Laws any regulatory or restrictive provisions relating to the proposed sale, transfer or other disposition of any of its outstanding stock by any of its stockholders. The manner and form, as well as all relevant terms, conditions and details thereof shall be determined by the stockholders of this Corporation; provided, however, that no such regulatory or restrictive provisions shall affect the rights of third parties, without actual knowledge thereof, unless such provisions shall be plainly written upon the certificate evidencing the ownership of said stock.
