To Whom It May Concern:

Recently we received the annual business report for 2000. On the cover of the report, it states that this is the second notice and the fee for filing is $550.00. Based on our records, we never received the first annual business report. Our company has not begun operations because of a problem with the lease. The address listed on the report is correct but we have been unable to occupy the location due to some legal problems with the lease. The first annual business report could have been mailed to that location and may have been lost or misplaced by the landlord. Please accept this check for $150.00 for the 2000 year. We apologize for any inconvenience this may have caused and ask that you accept the $150.00 and waive the penalties. Our company is still not operating, but we have finally taken occupancy of the premises.

Thank you very much for your cooperation.

Sincerely,

Bach V. Tran
