Re: F & O Enterprises, Inc.

Dear Sir or Madam:

In January 2001 my attorney's office filed an amendment to my corporate record changing the corporate name and address. At that time I believed his office was filing the corporate return as well. Just this week I received the notice in the mail for the corporate return which I had not received previously which indicates that an amount of roughly $600 is due when filing the return for filing late. I request by this letter a waiver of the fees for filing a late return and submit that by the filing of the amendment to the corporate name and address that I believed (a) the return had been filed timely and (b) I received no other notices.

I spoke with someone from your office today who suggested I write this letter and tender to you the original filing fee of $158.75 which I have enclosed herewith. I hope this will be acceptable to you in light of the situation and circumstances. Thank you in advance for your consideration.

Very truly yours,

F & O Enterprises, Inc.

Sally Feaman, Pres.
