RE: Reinstatement
Charles Kent Farms, Inc.
59-3620833

Dear Sir or Madam:

Enclosed are (1) completed corporation reinstatement form for Charles Kent Farms, Inc. and (2) taxpayer's check for $300.00 representing the annual corporate fee for 2003 and 2004 ($150.00 per year).

Taxpayer acknowledges the reinstatement fee for 2003 is $750.00. The officers and directors of the corporation are still the same; however, please note the addresses for the corporation and all of the officers and directors have changed. The property on which the farming operations were performed in Holmes County has been sold, new property acquired in Jackson County, and the operations relocated to Jackson County. Taxpayer affirms that forms for 2003 were not received and apparently not forwarded by the postal service. Taxpayer had no intent to avoid or evade filing and payment requirements. Apparently due to the address changes, taxpayer also did not receive any follow-up forms and/or notices that may have been mailed from the Department's office.

Taxpayer has requested that our firm, as independent accountants, ascertain the filing of the annual report and payment of appropriate fees are timely transacted for future years.

Your consideration in abating the applicable penalties and accepting the enclosed check to restore this entity to active status will be greatly appreciated.

Sincerely,

Martin E. Coates
Certified Public Accountant

CC: Charles Kent, Sr.
