Re: Document # P99000097492

Let me start off by saying that I had a terrible Accountant, we have been having problems with him for quite some time now. Yesterday I decided to let him go and find someone that is willing to do the work required for this company. As he was leaving, he compiled a stack of things on my desk and as he was leaving, he patted the pile, and said that I had quite a lot of work to do.

This morning when going through this stack, I found my 2000 Uniform Business Report that should have been done before May 1, 2000. As far as I knew it was done, well, it wasn't.

Immediately I phoned your office and explained the situation, and they instructed me to write this letter and send the papers now with no penalties due on my part, just this one time.

Thank you, for all your understanding on this matter.
