To Whom It May Concern:

After speaking with a young lady in your office, she advised me to write this letter to you and pay the fee of $150.00 for each corporation. This is the second year, that we did not receive the first mailing of the attached reports. Last year, I paid the late fee thinking it might have been my fault. When the forms arrived yesterday, I knew, I did not receive them earlier so that is when I called the office. The young lady told me that the forms are mailed in January of each year. Next year, I've marked a calendar and if the forms don't arrive, I will call the department. After looking closer at the forms, I noticed that the zip codes were incorrect and made the changes on the forms.

I sorry for the confusion and hope this will straighten out the problem.
Thank you for your help regarding this matter.

Respectfully,

Harry Wellman
