Dear Sirs,

Riverside~Commerce Inc registration
Notice of administrative dissolution P99000099232

As you may be aware, and as the heading of this letter indicates, this company operates in both the United Kingdom and the USA, being separately legally registered in each country.

We recently received a notice of administrative dissolution, document number P99000099232, by reason of our failure to renew our annual report. Since we received no notice of a requirement to file this document, we are anxious to correct the situation to maintain our registered status. Before we do so, however, we would appreciate advice on whether it is mandatory to have a registered agent, or whether we can maintain the administration of our registration directly ourselves.

As we are presently in the United Kingdom for some time, it would be appreciated if you could let us have this information by email, so that we can respond with the appropriate payment as speedily as possible.

Thank you in advance for this assistance.

Yours faithfully,

Gerry Hodes
