Re: Reinstatement

Dear Sir or Madam,

Back in November of 1999 with the help from a family member, we filled for an application for a corporation. We were pretty ignorant of the process and unfortunately the attorney mistakenly put the wrong person as agent for the corporation. The address given was one where we do not get mail, and we have never received any kind paperwork for the corporation, notices, annual reports, nothing. But then again, at the time we did not realize that we were suppose to receive anything.

Then about two months ago we were notified by one of our business clients that our corporation had been dissolved. This was a large surprise and is an unfortunate circumstance. We desire to rectify the situation as quickly as possible.

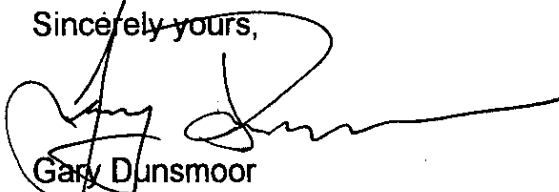

As per our phone conversation we have printed the forms from the internet and are submitting them plus, as directed a check in the amount of $450.00. We were told that if we did not send in our "Annual Reports" for the reason of not receiving them that the fee for reinstatement would be $450.

The agent of record should have been me, Gary Dunsmoor, or the attorney and not my brother John Dunsmoor. Because the form does state desire for the current Registered Agent we have filled out two forms, and got John's signature if that is what you need to make all this work.

John never did have nor does he currently have any position with the company.

We are pressed for timing about all of this, our bank has requested that get this situation resolved promptly and we appreciate anything your office might be able to do to help us get this straightened out.

Sincerely yours,

Gary Dunsmoor
