RE: Corporate Filing

Dear Sir/Madam,

I am writing this letter in response to a Notice of Administration Dissolution or Revocation letter I received on October 12, 2000. This came as a surprise due to the fact that we filed our application for renewal on January 10, 2000. After contacting your office on October 13, 2000 by telephone, I explained the situation and offered to fax a copy of the application and the check stub issued for $150.00 in January. I was told it would not be necessary to fax the information but to forward the copy of our renewal and send another check with a letter. I have enclosed a copy of the renewal application and a copy of the check stub issued in January. I would appreciate your assistance and if you have any questions or require further documentation, please contact me at your convenience.

Sincerely,
