2. In the event of the voluntary or involuntary liquidation, dissolution, distribution of assets or winding up of the corporation, after distribution in full of the preferential amounts, if any, to be distributed to the creditors and holders of shares of preferred stock, if any such stock shall be authorized herein and issued, the holders of common stock shall be entitled to receive all of the remaining assets of the corporation of whatever kind available for distribution to shareholders ratably in proportion to the number of shares of common stock held by them respectively. The Board of Directors may distribute in kind to the holders of common stock such remaining assets of the corporation or may sell, transfer or otherwise dispose of all or any part of such remaining

The merger or consolidation of the corporation into or with any other corporation, or the merger of any other corporation into it, or any purchase or redemption of shares of stock of the corporation of any class, shall not be deemed to be a dissolution, liquidation nor winding up of the corporation for the purposes of this paragraph.

3. Any person, upon becoming the owner or holder of any shares of the common stock or other securities having voting rights issued by this corporation ("shareholder"), does thereby consent and agree that all rights, powers, privileges, obligations or restrictions pertaining to such person or such securities in any way be altered, amended, restricted, enlarged, or repealed by legislative enactments of the State of Florida, or of the United States hereinafter adopted which have reference to or affect corporations, such securities, or such persons if any; and that the corporation reserves the right to transfer any business of the corporation, to alter, amend or repeal these Articles of Incorporation, or to do any other acts or things as authorized, permitted or allowed by such legislative enactments.
