To Whom It May Concern:

Flash Flood Productions, Inc received only the 3rd and final notice of dissolution, due to a number of factors.

I relocated the company in January 2001, because of a divorce with my wife. She has been making every attempt to thwart my efforts in business. There are a number of legal actions that have been taken and are pending. She has repeatedly refused to forward mail, and I believe this is the only reason I have not received the previous notices of dissolution. It is clear that she will not begin forwarding the mail properly until I have obtained a court order.

Attached you will find letter(s) from my attorney reflecting the nature of this issue. Please accept my apologies.

She has made every effort to destroy this business when possible, and at the very least is trying to cost me as much money as possible.

With that in mind, I am appealing my notice of dissolution and enclosing a check for the normal fee of $150.00. Please feel free to contact either myself or my attorney (Julie Pierce) with any questions you have.

With sincere apologies,
