RE: 2000 Uniform Business Report

Dear Receiving Agent:

Please find enclosed the 2000 Uniform Business Report for my CPA Firm. I recently received this report from my registered agent indicating the initial filing deadline had passed. I respectfully request that you allow my corporation to pay the amount due as if timely filed for the following reasons. First when the business was incorporated in November 1999 I specifically asked my attorney when the first annual report would be due and was advised that it would not be due until May 2001 since the first year consisted of a period less than six months. Second, the attorney prepared the incorporation documents not listing my business address so I did not receive the first report in a timely fashion. The first report, if received, went to my registered agents office. Finally, my registered agents office was destroyed by fire in late December 1999. He has been operating out of temporary quarters since then but all mail still comes to his old office and has been irregular at best. For these reasons, my ability to receive the report in a timely fashion was diminished and I believe my corporation has reasonable cause to request and receive a waiver of the penalty for late filing.

To settle this matter I have enclosed firm check #0150 in full payment of this obligation ($150) as if timely filed. To the best of my knowledge the facts as stated are true, correct and complete. I will be pleased to discuss this matter should you require any further information. Thank you in advance for your assistance.

Sincerely,

Charles V. Clements, CPA
President
