MEMO

Date: 7-10-06
To: Division of Corporations
From: Marcia Oltz
Subject: Wrong Address – Notice of Intent to Dissolve

We moved in December of 2005 and notified www.sunbiz.org to forward any information and forms to our new address during that month. We have been very busy since moving our business and home and just this week received a Notice of Intent to Dissolve from your offices. I went on line again and could not change the address but have printed the 2006 form. I tried calling and was told to send in a letter stating that we did not receive any communication from your office until now – and it was forwarded from our old address (copies of which I have included). I am enclosing a check for the $150.00 but do not feel we should be charged the $400.00 late fee because you never changed our address and the principal you have listed was the lawyer that set up the corporation but we have had no communication with him since that time.

Thank you for updating your records now.
