To Whom it may concern,

Circumstances in our company have called for a clean-up in our bookkeeping department and in our accounting services. We regret that our UBR, not being attended to in a timely matter, is one additional circumstance. It has just now come to our attention. We sincerely request that you accept our oversight and late admittance. If this is not possible please let us know. Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

James W. Atwell, Jr.
president
