2. To own real and personal property, enter into contracts, and engage in any lawful business necessary for the rendering of the professional rehabilitative services, including, but not limited to occupational therapy and physical therapy.
3. To do everything necessary, proper or convenient to accomplish any of the purpose set forth in these articles and to do every other act incidental to the corporate purposes which is not forbidden by Florida laws or by the provision of these articles of incorporation. The purpose of this corporation shall be carried out only through, officers, employees, and agents, each of whom is licensed or otherwise legally qualified to render professional therapy services in the State of Florida.
4. To do and transact any and all business as permitted under the laws of the State of Florida and the United States of America.
5. To purchase, receive by way of gift, subscribe for, invest in, and in all other ways acquire import, lease, possess, maintain, handle on consignment, own, hold of investment or otherwise, use, enjoy, exercise, operate, manage, conduct, perform, make, borrow, guarantee, contract in respect of, trade and deal in, sell, exchange, let, lend, export, mortgage, pledge, deal in trust, hypothecate, encumber, transfer, assign and in all other ways dispose of, design, develop, invent, improve, equip, repair, alter, fabricate, assemble, build, construct, operate, manufacture, plant, cultivate, produce, market, and in all other ways (whether like or unlike any of the foregoing), deal in and with property of every kind and character, real, personal, or mixed, tangible, or intangible, wherever situated and wherever held, including, but not limited to, money, credits, chases in action, securities, stocks, bonds, warranty, script, certificates, debentures, mortgages, notes, commercial paper, and other obligations and evidences of interest in or indebtedness of any person, firm or corporation, foreign or domestic, or of any government or subdivision or agency thereof, documents of title, and accompanying rights, and every other kind and character of personal property, real property (improved or unimproved), and the products and avails thereof, including, but not limited to, mineral, oil, gas, and water rights, all or any part of any going business and its incidents, franchises, subsidies, charters, concessions, grants, rights, powers, or privileges, granted or conferred by any government or subdivision or agency thereof, and any interest in or part of any of the foregoing and to exercise in respect thereof all of the rights, powers, privileges, granted or conferred by any government or subdivision or agency thereof, and any interest in or part of any of the foregoing and to exercise in respect thereof all of the rights, powers, privileges and immunities of individual owners or holders thereof.
6. To hire and employ agents, servants and employees, and to enter into agreements of employment and collective bargaining agreements, and to act as agent, consultants, contractor, trustee, factor or otherwise, either alone or in company with others.

7. To promote or aid in any manner, financially or otherwise, any person, firm, association or corporation and to guarantee contracts and other obligations.

8. To let concessions to others to do any of the things that this corporation is empowered to do and to enter into, make, perform, and carry out, contracts and arrangements of every kind and character with any person, firm, association, or corporation, or any government or authority or subdivision or agency thereof.

9. To carry out on any business whatsoever that this corporation may deem proper or convenient in connection with any of the foregoing purposes or otherwise, or that it may deem calculated, directly or indirectly, to improve the interest of this corporation, and to do all things specified in the Florida Statute, and to have and to exercise all powers conferred by the laws of the State of Florida on corporations formed under the laws pursuant to which and under which this corporation is formed, as such laws are now in effect or may at any time hereafter be amended and to do any and all things hereinabove set forth to the same extent and as fully as natural persons might or could do, either alone or in connection with other persons, firms, associations, or corporations, and in any part of the world.

The foregoing statement of purposes shall be construed as a statement of both purposes and powers, shall be literally construed in aid of the powers of this corporation, and the powers and purposes stated in each clause shall, except where otherwise stated, be in nonwise limited or restricted by any term or provision of any other clause, and shall be regarded not only as independent purposes, but the purposes and powers stated shall be construed distributively as each object expressed and all the enumeration as to specific powers shall not be construed as to limit in any manner the aforesaid general powers, but are in furtherance of, and in addition to and not in limitation of said general powers.

ARTICLE III

This Corporation is authorized to issue 100 shares of common stocks with a par value of $1.00, a share.

All of this stock shall be payable in cash, property, real or personal, labor or services in lieu of cash at a just valuation to be fixed by the Board of Directors of this Corporation.

Upon the sale for cash of any new stock of the same kind, class or series as that which already holds, every stockholder of this Corporation shall have the pre-emptive right to purchase his pro-share thereof at a price at which it is offered to others, whether or not is excess of part.

Fractional shares need not be issued on account of these provisions.
