To whom it may concern,

As per our conversations on 7-15-01 and 8-13-01, We are turning in this uniform business report to your offices. This report is the only one we have recieved this year. We are a fairly new company, and refiled with the the state only one time in the past. Normally, we have paid only $150.00 for our-yearly renewal fee, but this year our report said that we owe $550.00. Before we recieved this report, we were a little concerned that we didn't receive anything from the state regarding our corporate license for the year-to-date, but we had called your offices and were reassured that we whould be receiving a report, and they were right. We did receive one (this one). The problem is when we finally recieved the report in question, we had noticed the amount owed. So once again we had called back and now were informed that the report we had gotten was the second one, and that we should have already recieved the first report, (hence the price difference).

We explained that we haven't recieved the first report yet, and the operator recommend to us to write a letter stating what had happened. This letter is in regards to that conversation with your offices. We apologize about any problems that this may have caused, We are attaching a check for the proper amount, and the only report we have recieved, with this letter. Please review this information on the attached report, and if we can assist you in any way please call us.

Thank You,

David Allen
