Re: P99000109877

Dear Sir/Madam:

I remember the corporation being effective in January of 2000, but apparently after speaking with the Division explained that it began effective in December 15, 1999.

I believe maybe because I received my sales tax and federal information forms in January to my mailing address led me to again assume my beginning date was in January. Additionally, My attorney whom filed my return was to include a mailing address for the corporation. I only received the second UBR report by accident when the mailman came in to the physical corporate address. Since no one other than myself within the office knows that these paper belong to me, I would likely have not received the second notice. This is why I wanted a mailing address.

While I know most of these circumstance are not necessarily your problems, I do hope that you will except the explanation and the $150 for the annual UBS fee without penalty.

Thank you for your cooperation.

Sincerely yours,

Douglas Fleishman
Director
