To Whom it may concern

I was told over the phone by someone in your office (Division of Corporations) that I needed to fill out this corporation reinstatement form because I did not pay my annual corporation fee for last year. I don't know if that means for 2002 or 2003. And the reason was that I didn't pay it was because we moved to a different address and for some reason your paperwork never came to our new address. For some reason it never got forwarded to our new address so in trying to get the paperwork through our tax person who does all of our paperwork, taxes etc. They said that they could not get it, because of not being paid the year before, that is the corporation fee not been paid for the year before.
So in all of this I found out that the Division of Corporations does not have my new correct address. So I called the number 1-850-245-6056 (Division of Corporations) and they told me since there was a problem (over)
