RE: Annual Report for year 2000

To Whom It May Concern:

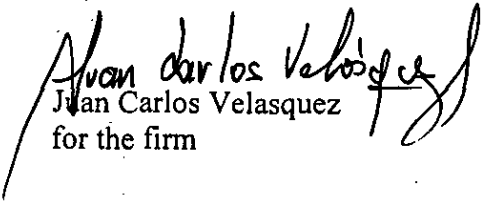

Recently, I arrived in the United States to find out that my corporation is delinquent in filing its report. I did not reside in the United States at the time of incorporation as listed on my corporate documents. I had recently incorporated and paid my attorney (registered agent) who filed my papers right before Christmas. I was not told that one week later I had to file an Annual Report. My attorney misrepresented the facts.

I never received the Annual Report Form. I am not yet totally familiar with all of the different filing requirements for the City, County, State, and Federal governments. I've come to this country infrequently, but do try to persevere to fulfill my duties to you as well as to the other agencies.

I've commissioned a CPA who has informed me that the Form must be signed and accompanied with a check prior to May 1 of the year in order to avoid penalties. Had I the knowledge back then of what my CPA told me now, I would have called your office and asked for an Annual Report Form and gladly filed it.

I respectfully request a reconsideration on my company's status. Please grant me this one time only. Thank you.

Respectfully submitted,

Juan Carlos Velasquez
for the firm
