Ladies and Gentlemen:

Please reinstate the above-mentioned corporations. Per our phone conversation yesterday, I am sending the 2001 Uniform Business Reports (UBR) and checks in the amount of $150, for A.J. Lang Financial Services, Inc., and Lorri R. Miller, CPA, PA. Thinking the original Form UBR had been timely filed and received by May 1, 2001, I disregarded the 60-day notice sent by the State during the Summer when I was in the process of moving my office.

As I suggested, there may have been a breakdown in delivery service at that time because there has been other things mailed in April which have not reached their destination. For example, I am the President of my condominium association and one of my neighbors sold his condo, closing on April 12, 2001. I had completed the estoppel and sent the original via U. S. Postal Service prior to the closing, but it never reached the title company.

Should you have any questions, feel free to email or call me at (941) 659-3498. Although my office address has changed, my phone number and email address (LMiller964@AOL.com) remain the same. For your convenience, I am enclosing copies of the Certificates of Administrative Dissolution or Revocation and also, a separate check in the amount of $17.50 so that both Alan and I may receive a current Certificate of Status (Box 6.).

Sincerely

forri R. Miller, CPA
