Letter of Waiver

Dear Michelle;

Please accept this letter as explanation for late filing. Towards the end of June 2001 we submitted a 400.5 to the DBPR to add an additional Realtor to our staff. We received a letter back from the DBPR stating that our corporation was not up to date, so we immediately call the Division of Corporations to find out why not. Your office said a form was sent out in January some time and we should have received it. We explained we did not receive the form and we immediately sent in a check for $150.00 plus a fee of $8.75 for certificate of status. That check has never been cashed so we called again to explain the circumstances, in the interim we receive a late notice form from your office stating we have until September 12, 2001 to file, so we sent another form and check for $158.75 in July and that check has not been cashed. Therefore this time we will overnight our form and check to you directly.

We are a new corporation and we did not know when the annual report was due or we would have inquired earlier. We are now very familiar with the process and you can rest assured that we will not be late filing in the future.

Thank you for your time and consideration in this matter.

Sincerely;

Bryan M McGuire
