I am in receipt of your letter dated July 10, 1998 and am writing to ask you to please reconsider your decision.

I never received the form due for filing on May 1, 1998. However, immediately upon receiving your second notice, I contacted my accountant and explained the situation. He wrote and signed a letter on my behalf, stating that I had misplaced the form. I did not misplace it - I never received it!

If you will check my history with your office, you will see that for 8 years I have always filed on time. I feel that a charge of $400.00 is unfair for a mistake made beyond my control.

I am a very conscientious business person and always file and pay all of my taxes when required. I honestly did not receive the form and ask you to please accept the enclosed form and check.

Sincerely,

Kathleen O'Connell
