Gentlemen:

Re: FEI 65-0218706

I have today received correspondence from you that astonishes me!

This is the first mail this year concerning BRSD; I have never received the usual report which I have always paid for and mailed back to you in April. I was awaiting this report and request for payment, assuming that you had a change of dates in collecting and reviewing the form.

As no other correspondence has come to me, and since this is the initial correspondence on this subject, I am enclosing my completed form and my check for $150 that I would have sent on time if I had received mail from you on time.

Very truly yours,

Shirley S. Weissman
President

PS. I have never been late in my life for any commitment; your records should show that no report was prepared by your office and sent to me in time for the deadline of June 7, 2002, that you indicate.

Enclosures: Report & Check.
