Dear Sirs,

RE: 65-0226895

I received today a second copy of the UBR. After corresponding with Kristen at your corporate help desk online, it seems that the original UBR and check that we sent out to you on April 20, 2001 was not received by you. At Kristen's suggestion, I contacted our bank and they confirmed that my check had not yet cleared.

My wife is President and Treasurer of our company and would generally be following up on these types of items, however, she has undergone major surgery and in her absence I had not reconciled our bank statement and caught the uncleared check.

I am enclosing the UBR and a check for $150.00 with my request that the $400 late fee be waived this once. To my knowledge, since we set up our company in 1990 we have not been late in filing our UBR and would not have been this time had the postal service done their job and I had been more attentive to the bookkeeping.

I would be very grateful for your consideration in this matter and await your decision.

Sincerely,

Peter M. Trappen
Vice President
