Dear Sir or Madam,

In the process of completing the 2001 Uniform Business Report for the above referenced document, it came to my attention that the form I was completing was a follow up to a form, which was originally due May 1, 2001.

We have always filed our Business Reports in a timely manner. The only explanation we can offer for the lateness this year is that we did not receive the original forms due May, 1, 2001.

I apologize for our tardiness. The completed form, along with the original fee of $150.00 is enclosed.

I'm requesting that the late fee of $400.00 be waived since we apparently did not receive the original form.

Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

W.N. Schomaker, III
