We received the 2nd notice that you have sent to us. We, however, didn't receive the first notice. The reason is because we have moved and our address has changed. But before you sent the first notice, we have informed you last year that we have moved to our new address. Today, we have called and talked to an office lady whose name is Stacy about this fact. She told us to write this message to you and send a fee of $150.00 instead of $550.00. We thank you for understanding this fact.
