November 12, 2001

Dear Ms. Harris;

I am writing in regards to Document Number S31373, Certificate of Administrative Dissolution or Revocation.

Mr. Kelly, President of Southway Enterprises, Inc. has been between Hawaii and California the last four months on several job sites. The above-mentioned document as well as the annual report packet was sent to an office address that is only used by Mr. Kelly himself and we at the business office were unaware that the mail was not being forwarded.

It was brought to our attention last week and after retrieving the mail, I discovered the annual report and the Dissolution document.

After contacting Mr. Kelly, I was directed to write to the Division of Corporations to address this matter and inquire as to what procedures must be met in order to reinstate our corporate status.

Mr. Kelly wants to convey his deepest apologies for the oversight and delay in forwarding the annual report and the funds required to continue our corporate status without interruption.

I am forwarding the annual report and a check in hopes that I might start the reinstatement process. I would be extremely grateful if you would provide me with information as to what else is required to resolve this matter as quickly as possible.

Again, I sincerely wish to express our apologies for this oversight and convey our desire to meet all necessary requirements to continue doing business as a corporation in the state of Florida.

In order to expedite things, please forward any correspondence to my office directly at the following address: Southway Enterprises, c/o Vicki Martine, 12751 SE 75th Street, Morriston, FL 32668. My phone is 352-465-3020 and my fax is 352-465-5811.

Thanking you in advance for your time and help.

Sincerely,

Vicki Martine
