Clipper Caribe Corporation

August 10, 2001

Attn: Secretary of State
Division of Corporations

Dear Sirs:

In the process of opening a new business bank account this past week, I by chance discovered that my annual report had not been filed. I only discovered this because the bank called to confirm that my business is current and active.

I have no memory whatsoever of having ever received the form from you to file the report. It was not in my mind that the report was due by May 31. If anything, I was thinking that the report was due by August 31.

I am enclosing a form that I downloaded from the Internet. I beg that you accept this report as being filed in timely fashion (since your mailing to me apparently went astray) and not impose penalty fees.

Thank you,

John W. Morris
