Sec. of State of Florida
Divisions of Corporations
Tallahassee, FL.

Honorable Secretary:

In December of 2003, I contacted your office by phone concerning our Corporation Panama City Beach Ventures Inc. It was my wish to dissolve the Corporation at the end of 2003. We had sold all assets of the Corporation, and were paying off all debts and obligations. The few checking accounts were closed, and all the affairs of the Corporation were concluded.

I never received any paperwork from your office to dissolve the Corporation. I was told that a check would be necessary to be sent for $3500. The other option would be for your office to administratively dissolve the Corporation.

With your kind permission, please find my check for $3500 to dissolve the Corporation voluntarily. Sincerely,

Charles E. Collins
