re: Change of Address

Dear Sir or Madam:

I got married and moved and did not receive the original "Annual Report." Although I completed a forwarding address change with the post office, apparently they did not forward the first report. A copy of the front page of the report form is enclosed showing the yellow sticker from the post office dated July 11, 2000.

Enclosed please find a check in the amount of $150 as I was instructed to write this letter after a telephone conversation with one of your staff. Please accept my explanation as the filing fee of $550 is unusually severe for not having changed my address.

If you have any questions, please contact me at any of the telephone numbers listed above.

Sincerely,
Joan Swinson Robbins
