RE: Reinstating Corporation for Advanced Custom Metal Fabricators Inc.

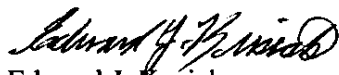

To Whom It May Concern:

I Edward Kusiak, owner & CEO of said corporation had experienced undue stress & difficult times due to my wife's illness of heart & diabetes with many different complications lasting over a (2) year period. She finally succumbed and passed on. Shortly after the corporation was burglarized with records and small machinery taken. Records were of corporation and clients.

After several months I became ill with stress & heart problems. To take some financial burdens off me, I decided to move the corporation to my friend's location in Davie where he used my equipment in return of no storage fees. I received & paid tangible tax on equipment for 2003. I did not receive a 2004 tangible tax bill. I paid 2003 tax in person. A physical stamp on 2003 bill at this time gave notice that I moved, also post office change of address cards were mailed to the county and the state. They stated they did not send a tax bill because my corporation was dissolved.

I called the Florida State Division of Corporations and spoke with Ms. Isellers. She informed me to write a brief explanation of the circumstances. She advised that any penalty would most likely be waived. I was instructed to send a check for the amount of $450.00 for 2003-2005. I want to get my corporation in good standing and get myself active. Thank you most kindly for your understanding in this matter.

Respectfully yours,

Edward J. Kusiak
CEO
