Re: 2003 Uniform Business Report

Dear Sir or Madam:

It recently came to my attention that the above-referenced report had not been received by my office nor filed with the Department of State.

In July of 2002, I moved my office from 6581 Southern Blvd., West Palm Beach to the address shown on this letterhead. In retrospect, I would assume that the form that is automatically sent was returned because our forwarding address had expired. Without the form to remind us, the filing completely escaped our attention.

As soon as the omission was discovered, we obtained the enclosed form and now submit it with the correct address and with the fee which would have been paid had we received it in a timely manner. We hope this will be accepted.

Thank you.

Very truly yours,

John S. Call, Jr.
