To Whom It May Concern,

As per my conversation with an employee in your department, I am writing this letter to inform you that I failed to receive your first notice about my corporation filing fee. In the past 4 months, my brother moved out of my house and a lot of my mail has ended up at his house, and some of it never got back to my house.

Mine is a one-man corporation and in the past, I never failed to pay my taxes or my filing fees. I was told by your department rep. That I may be allowed to pay the original filing fee if I put this explanation in writing. I hope that you will be understanding of my position.

Gratefully yours,

Yacov Zilberstein
