Re: Dunham Associates, Inc.
M.A. Dunham, Inc.

To Whom It May Concern:

My client recently received the 60-day notice letter from your office for his two corporations, along with the Uniform Business Report for 2003.

We are appealing the $400 penalty for each corporation for the late filing of the UBR. If you will check your records, you will see that my client has never filed his UBR late, for either corporation. He claims to have never received the original UBR. Also, because the May 1 filing deadline is not ingrained in business people's minds as the filing deadline for income tax returns, he did not think to inquire as to why he never received the UBR from your office.

I have enclosed the signed copies of the UBR for each corporation, along with a check for the original filing fee for each corporation. Please consider our appeal for an abatement of these penalties.

Sincerely,

Jerold K. Braun, CPA
