B. Dividends - Class A Preferred. Any dividends accruing on the Class A Preferred will be paid in lieu of cash dividends by the issuance of additional shares of Class A Preferred (including fractional shares) having an aggregate Class A Liquidation Value at the time of such payment equal to the amount of the dividend to be paid. If and when any shares are issued under this paragraph 3.3.1B for the payment of accrued dividends, such Class A Shares shall be deemed to be validly issued and outstanding and fully paid and nonassessable. During the three year period commencing on the date of issuance of each share of Class A Preferred (a "Class A Share"), dividends on such Class A Share shall accrue on a daily basis at the rate of 15% per annum of the sum of the Class A Liquidation Value thereof plus all accumulated and unpaid dividends thereon from and including the date of issuance of such Class A Share to and including the first to occur of: (i) the date on which the Class A Liquidation Value of such Class A Share (plus all accrued and unpaid dividends thereon) is paid to the holder thereof in connection with the liquidation of the Corporation or the redemption of such Class A Share by the Corporation, (ii) the date on which such Class A Share is converted into shares of Conversion Stock hereunder, (iii) the third anniversary of the date of issuance of such Class A Share, (iv) September 28, 2004 or (v) the date on which such Class A Share is otherwise acquired by the Corporation. Such dividends shall accrue whether or not they have been declared and whether or not there are profits, surplus or other funds of the Corporation legally available for the payment of dividends. The date on which the Corporation initially issues any Class A Share shall be deemed to be its "date of issuance" regardless of the number of times transfer of such Class A Share is made on the stock records maintained by or for the Corporation and regardless of the number of certificates which may be issued to evidence such Class A Share.

C. Dividends - Class B Preferred. Any dividends accruing on the Class B Preferred will be paid in lieu of cash dividends by the issuance of additional shares of Class B Preferred (including fractional shares) having an aggregate Class B Liquidation Value at the time of such payment equal to the amount of the dividend to be paid. If and when any shares are issued under this paragraph 3.3.1C for the payment of accrued dividends, such Class B Shares shall be deemed to be validly issued and outstanding and fully paid and nonassessable. During the three year period commencing on the date of issuance of each share of Class B Preferred (a "Class B Share"), dividends on such Class B Share shall accrue on a daily basis at the rate of 15% per annum of the sum of the Class B Liquidation Value thereof plus all accumulated and unpaid dividends thereon from and including the date of issuance of such Class B Share to and including the first to occur of: (i) the date on which the Class B Liquidation Value of such Class B Share (plus all accrued and unpaid dividends thereon) is paid to the holder thereof in connection with the liquidation of the Corporation or the redemption of such Class B Share by the Corporation, (ii) the date on which such Class B Share is converted into shares of Conversion Stock hereunder, (iii) the third anniversary of the date of issuance of such Class B Share, (iv) January 8, 2006 or (v) the date on which such Class B Share is otherwise acquired by the Corporation. Such dividends shall accrue whether or not they have been declared and whether or not there are profits, surplus or other funds of the Corporation legally available for the payment of dividends. The date on which the Corporation initially issues any Class B Share shall be deemed to be its "date of issuance" regardless of the number of times transfer of such Class B Share is made on the stock records maintained by or for the Corporation and regardless of the number of certificates which may be issued to evidence such Class B Share.

D. Dividend Reference Dates. To the extent not paid on September 28th of each year, beginning September 28, 2002 (the "Class A Dividend Reference Dates"), all dividends which have accrued on each Class A Share outstanding during the one-year period ending upon each such Class A Dividend Reference Date shall be accumulated and shall remain accumulated dividends with respect to such Class A Share until paid to the holder thereof. To the extent not paid on January 8th of each year, beginning January 8, 2004 (the "Class B Dividend Reference Dates"), all dividends which have accrued on each Class B Share outstanding during the one-year period ending upon each such Class B Dividend Reference Date shall be accumulated and shall remain accumulated dividends with respect to such Class B Share until paid to the holder thereof.

E. Distribution of Partial Dividend Payments. Except as otherwise provided herein, if at any time the Corporation pays less than the total amount of dividends then accrued with respect to the Preferred Stock, such payment shall be distributed pro rata among the holders thereof based upon the aggregate accrued but unpaid dividends on the shares of Preferred Stock held by each such holder.

H030000087939

F. Participating Dividends. In the event that the Corporation declares or pays any dividends upon the Common Stock (whether payable in cash, securities or other property) other than dividends payable solely in shares of Common Stock, the Corporation shall also declare and pay to the holders of the Preferred Stock at the same time that it declares and pays such dividends to the holders of the Common Stock, the dividends which would have been declared and paid with respect to the Common Stock issuable upon conversion of the Preferred Stock had all of the outstanding Preferred Stock been converted immediately prior to the record date for such dividend, or if no record date is fixed, the date as of which the Board of Directors of the Corporation approves such dividend.

3.3.2 Liquidation. Upon any liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Corporation (whether voluntary or involuntary), each holder of Preferred Stock shall be entitled to be paid, before any distribution or payment is made upon any Junior Securities, an amount in cash equal to the aggregate Liquidation Value of all shares of Preferred Stock held by such holder (plus all accrued and unpaid dividends thereon), and the holders of Preferred Stock shall not be entitled to any further payment. If upon any such liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Corporation the Corporation's assets to be distributed among the holders of the Preferred Stock are insufficient to permit payment to such holders of the aggregate amount which they are entitled to be paid under this Section 3.3.2, then the entire assets available to be distributed to the Corporation's stockholders shall be distributed pro rata among such holders based upon the aggregate Liquidation Value (plus all accrued and unpaid dividends) of the Preferred Stock held by each such holder. Prior to the liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Corporation, the Corporation shall declare for payment all accrued and unpaid dividends with respect to the Preferred Stock. Not less than 60 days prior to the payment date stated therein, the Corporation shall mail written notice of any such liquidation, dissolution or winding up to each record holder of Preferred Stock, setting forth in reasonable detail the amount of proceeds to be paid with respect to each share of Preferred Stock and each share of Common Stock in connection with such liquidation, dissolution or winding up. Neither the consolidation or merger of the Corporation into or with any other entity or entities (whether or not the Corporation is the surviving entity), nor the sale or transfer by the Corporation of all or any part of its assets, nor the reduction of the capital stock of the Corporation nor any other form of recapitalization or reorganization affecting the Corporation shall be deemed to be a liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Corporation within the meaning of this Section 3.3.2.

3.3.3 Priority of Preferred Stock on Dividends and Redemptions. So long as any Preferred Stock remains outstanding, without the prior written consent of the Requisite Class A Holders and of the Requisite Class B Holders, the Corporation shall not, nor shall it permit any Subsidiary to, redeem, purchase or otherwise acquire directly or indirectly any Junior Securities, nor shall the Corporation directly or indirectly pay or declare any dividend or make any distribution upon any Junior Securities; provided that the Corporation may repurchase shares of Common Stock from present or former employees of the Corporation and its Subsidiaries in accordance with the provisions of repurchase agreements approved by the Board.

3.3.4 Redemptions.

A. Special Redemptions.

(i) If a Change in Ownership has occurred or the Corporation obtains knowledge that a Change in Ownership is proposed to occur, the Corporation shall give prompt written notice of such Change in Ownership describing in reasonable detail the material terms and date of consummation thereof to each holder of Preferred Stock, but in any event such notice shall not be given later than five days after the occurrence of such Change in Ownership, and the Corporation shall give each holder of Preferred Stock prompt written notice of any material change in the terms or timing of such transaction. The holder or holders of a majority of any class of the Preferred Stock then outstanding may require the Corporation to redeem all or any portion of such class of the Preferred Stock owned by such holder or holders at a price per Share equal to, at the option of each redeeming holder thereof, (a) the Liquidation Value thereof (plus all accrued and unpaid dividends thereon), or (b) an amount equal to the number of shares of Conversion Stock then issuable upon conversion of such share of Preferred Stock multiplied by the consideration payable with respect to each share of Common Stock in such Change of Ownership, by giving written notice to the Corporation of such election prior to the later of (x) 21 days after receipt of the Corporation's notice and (y) five days prior to the consummation of the Change in Ownership (the "Expiration Date"). The Corporation shall give prompt written notice of any such election to all other holders of Preferred Stock within five days after the receipt thereof, and each such holder shall have until the later of (a) the Expiration Date or (b) ten days after receipt of such second notice to request redemption hereunder (by giving written notice to the Corporation) of all or any portion of the Preferred Stock owned by such holder.

H030000087939

Upon receipt of such election(s), the Corporation shall be obligated to redeem the aggregate number of shares of Preferred Stock specified therein on the occurrence of the Change in Ownership. If any proposed Change in Ownership does not occur, all requests for redemption in connection therewith shall be automatically rescinded, or if there has been a material change in the terms or the timing of the transaction, any holder of Preferred Stock may rescind such holder's request for redemption by giving written notice of such rescission to the Corporation.

The term "Change in Ownership" means any sale, transfer or issuance or series of sales, transfers and/or issuances of Common Stock by the Corporation or any holders thereof which results in any Person or group of Persons (as the term "group" is used under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934), other than the holders of Common Stock and Preferred Stock as of the date of the consummation of the transactions contemplated in the Purchase Agreement, owning more than 50% of the Common Stock outstanding at the time of such sale, transfer or issuance or series of sales, transfers and/or issuances.

(ii) If a Fundamental Change is proposed to occur, the Corporation shall give written notice of such Fundamental Change describing in reasonable detail the material terms and date of consummation thereof to each holder of Preferred Stock not more than 45 days not less than 20 days prior to the consummation of such Fundamental Change, and the Corporation shall give each holder of Preferred Stock prompt written notice of any material change in the terms or timing of such transaction. The holder or holders of a majority of any class of the Preferred Stock then outstanding may require the Corporation to redeem all or any portion of such class of the Preferred Stock owned by such holder or holders at a price per share equal to, at the option of each redeeming holder of Preferred Stock, (a) the Liquidation Value thereof (plus all accrued and unpaid dividends thereon), or (b) an amount equal to the number of shares of Conversion Stock then issuable upon conversion of such share of Preferred Stock multiplied by the consideration payable with respect to each share of Common Stock in such Fundamental Change, by giving written notice to the Corporation of such election prior to the later of (x) ten days prior to the consummation of the Fundamental Change or (y) ten days after receipt of notice from the Corporation. The Corporation shall give prompt written notice of such election to all other holders of Preferred Stock (but in any event within seven days prior to the consummation of the Fundamental Change), and each such holder shall have until five days after the receipt of such notice to request redemption (by written notice given to the Corporation) of all or any portion of the Preferred Stock owned by such holder.

Upon receipt of such election(s), the Corporation shall be obligated to redeem the aggregate number of shares of Preferred Stock specified therein upon the consummation of such Fundamental Change. If any proposed Fundamental Change does not occur, all requests for redemption in connection therewith shall be automatically rescinded, or if there has been a material change in the terms or the timing of the transaction, any holder of Preferred Stock may rescind such holder's request for redemption by delivering written notice thereof to the Corporation prior to the consummation of the transaction.

The term "Fundamental Change" means (a) any sale or transfer of more than 50% of the assets of the Corporation and its Subsidiaries on a consolidated basis (measured either by book value in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles consistently applied or by fair market value determined in the reasonable good faith judgment of the Corporation's Board of Directors) in any transaction or series of transactions (other than sales in the ordinary course of business) and (b) any merger or consolidation to which the Corporation is a party, except for a merger in which the Corporation is the surviving corporation, the terms of the Preferred Stock are not changed and shares of Preferred Stock are not exchanged for cash, securities or other property, and after giving effect to such merger, the holders of the Corporation's outstanding shares of stock possessing a majority of the voting power (under ordinary circumstances) to elect a majority of the Corporation's Board of Directors immediately prior to the merger shall continue to own the Corporation's outstanding capital stock possessing the voting power (under ordinary circumstances) to elect a majority of the Corporation's Board of Directors.

B. Dividends After Redemption Date. No share of Preferred Stock shall be entitled to any dividends accruing after the date on which the Liquidation Value of such share of Preferred Stock (plus all accrued and unpaid dividends thereon) is paid to the holder of such share. On such date, all rights of the holder of such Preferred Stock shall cease, and such share of Preferred Stock shall no longer be deemed to be issued and outstanding.

3.3.5 Voting Rights. In addition to any voting rights provided by law, the holders of Preferred Stock shall have the following voting rights:

H030000087939

(c) a certificate representing any shares of Preferred Stock which were represented by the certificate or certificates delivered to the Corporation in connection with such conversion but which were not converted.

(vi) If for any reason the Corporation is unable to pay any portion of the accrued and unpaid dividends on Preferred Stock being converted, such dividends may, at the converting holder's option, be converted into an additional number of shares of Conversion Stock determined by dividing the amount of the unpaid dividends to be applied for such purpose, by the Conversion Price then in effect.

(vii) The issuance of certificates for shares of Conversion Stock upon conversion of Preferred Stock shall be made without charge to the holders of such Preferred Stock for any issuance tax in respect thereof or other cost incurred by the Corporation in connection with such conversion and the related issuance of shares of Conversion Stock. Upon conversion of each share of Preferred Stock, the Corporation shall take all such actions as are necessary in order to insure that the Conversion Stock issuable with respect to such conversion shall be validly issued, fully paid and nonassessable, free and clear of all taxes, liens, charges and encumbrances with respect to the issuance thereof.

(viii) The Corporation shall not close its books against the transfer of Preferred Stock or of Conversion Stock issued or issuable upon conversion of Preferred Stock in any manner, which interferes with the timely conversion of Preferred Stock. The Corporation shall assist and cooperate with any holder of Preferred Stock required to make any governmental filings or obtain any governmental approval prior to or in connection with any conversion of Shares hereunder (including, without limitation, making any filings required to be made by the Corporation).

(ix) The Corporation shall at all times reserve and keep available out of its authorized but unissued shares of Conversion Stock, solely for the purpose of issuance upon the conversion of the Preferred Stock (and any accrued but unpaid dividends thereon which are issuable in the form of Preferred Stock), such number of shares of Conversion Stock issuable upon the conversion of all outstanding Preferred Stock. All shares of Conversion Stock, which are so issuable shall, when issued, be duly and validly issued, fully paid and nonassessable and free from all taxes, liens and charges. The Corporation shall take all such actions as may be necessary to assure that all such shares of Conversion Stock may be so issued without violation of any applicable law or governmental regulation or any requirements of any domestic securities exchange upon which shares of Conversion Stock may be listed (except for official notice of issuance which shall be immediately delivered by the Corporation upon each such issuance). The Corporation shall not take any action, which would cause the number of authorized but unissued shares of Conversion Stock to be less than the number of such shares required to be reserved hereunder for issuance upon conversion of the Preferred Stock.

B. Conversion Price.

(i) Initial Conversion Price. The initial "Conversion Price" for Class A Shares shall be $7.00 and the initial "Conversion Price" for Class B Shares shall be $9.00. In order to prevent dilution of the conversion rights granted under this Section 3.3.6, the Conversion Price shall be subject to adjustment from time to time pursuant to this paragraph B.

(ii) Subdivision or Combination of Common Stock. If the Corporation at any time subdivides (by any stock split, stock dividend, recapitalization or otherwise) one or more classes of its outstanding shares of Common Stock into a greater number of shares, the Conversion Price in effect immediately prior to such subdivision shall be proportionately reduced, and if the Corporation at any time combines (by reverse stock split or otherwise) one or more classes of its outstanding shares of Common Stock into a smaller number of shares, the Conversion Price in effect immediately prior to such combination shall be proportionately increased.

(iii) Reorganization, Reclassification, Consolidation, Merger or Sale. Any recapitalization, reorganization, reclassification, consolidation, merger, sale of all or substantially all of the Corporation's assets or other transaction, in each case which is effected in such a manner that the holders of Common Stock are entitled to receive (either directly or upon subsequent liquidation) stock, securities or assets with respect to or in exchange for Common Stock, is referred to herein as an "Organic Change". Prior to the consummation of any Organic Change, the Corporation shall make appropriate provisions (in form and substance satisfactory to the Requisite Class A Holders and the Requisite Class B Holders) to insure that each of the holders of Preferred Stock shall thereafter have the right to acquire and receive, in lieu of or in addition to (as the case may be) the shares of Conversion Stock immediately theretofore acquirable and receivable upon the conversion of such holder's Preferred Stock, such shares of stock, securities or assets as such holder would have received in connection with such Organic Change if such holder had converted its Preferred Stock immediately prior to such Organic Change. In each such case, the Corporation shall also make appropriate provisions (in form and substance satisfactory to the Requisite Class A Holders and the Requisite Class B Holders) to insure that the provisions of this Section 3.3.6 and Sections 3.3.7 and 3.3.8 hereof shall thereafter be applicable to the Preferred Stock (including, in the case of any such consolidation, merger or sale in which the successor entity or purchasing entity is other than the Corporation, an immediate adjustment of the Conversion Price to the value for the Common Stock reflected by the terms of such consolidation, merger or sale, and a corresponding immediate adjustment in the number of shares of Conversion Stock acquirable and receivable upon conversion of Preferred Stock, if the value so reflected is less than the applicable Conversion Price in effect immediately prior to such consolidation, merger or sale). The Corporation shall not effect any such consolidation, merger or sale, unless prior to the consummation thereof, the successor entity (if other than the Corporation) resulting from consolidation or merger or the entity purchasing such assets assumes by written instrument (in form and substance satisfactory to the Requisite Class A Holders and the Requisite Class B Holders), the obligation to deliver to each such holder such shares of stock, securities or assets as, in accordance with the foregoing provisions, such holder may be entitled to acquire.

(iv) Certain Events. If any event occurs of the type contemplated by the provisions of this Section 3.3.6B but not expressly provided for by such provisions (including, without limitation, the granting of stock appreciation rights, phantom stock rights or other rights with equity features), then the Corporation's Board of Directors shall make an appropriate adjustment in the applicable Conversion Price so as to protect the rights of the holders of each class of Preferred Stock; provided that no such adjustment shall increase the applicable Conversion Price as otherwise determined pursuant to this Section 3.3.6B or decrease the number of shares of Conversion Stock issuable upon conversion of each share of Preferred Stock.

C. Notices.

(i) Immediately upon any adjustment of the Conversion Price relating to any class of Preferred Stock, the Corporation shall give written notice thereof to all holders of Preferred Stock, setting forth in reasonable detail and certifying the calculation of such adjustment.

(ii) The Corporation shall give written notice to all holders of Preferred Stock at least 20 days prior to the date on which the Corporation closes its books or takes a record (a) with respect to any dividend or distribution upon Common Stock, (b) with respect to any pro rata subscription offer to holders of Common Stock or (c) for determining rights to vote with respect to any Organic Change, dissolution or liquidation.

(iii) The Corporation shall also give written notice to the holders of Preferred Stock at least 20 days prior to the date on which any Organic Change shall take place.

3.3.7 Purchase Rights. If at any time the Corporation grants, issues or sells any Options, Convertible Securities or rights to purchase stock, warrants, securities or other property pro rata to the record holders of any class of Common Stock (the "Purchase Rights"), then each holder of Preferred Stock shall be entitled to acquire, upon the terms applicable to such Purchase Rights, the aggregate Purchase Rights which such holder could have acquired if such holder had held the number of shares of Conversion Stock acquirable upon conversion of such holder's Preferred Stock immediately before the date on which a record is taken for the grant, issuance or sale of such Purchase Rights, or if no such record is taken, the date as of which the record holders of Common Stock are to be determined for the grant, issue or sale of such Purchase Rights.

3.3.8 Registration of Transfer. The Corporation shall keep at its principal office a register for the registration of Preferred Stock. Upon the surrender of any certificate representing Preferred Stock at such place, the Corporation shall, at the request of the record holder of such certificate, execute and deliver (at the Corporation's expense) a new certificate or certificates in exchange therefor representing in the aggregate the number of the class of Preferred Stock represented by the surrendered certificate. Each such new certificate shall be registered in such name and shall represent such number of shares of Preferred Stock as is requested by the holder of the surrendered certificate and shall be substantially identical in form to the surrendered certificate, and dividends shall accrue on the Preferred Stock represented by such new certificate from the date to which dividends have been fully paid on such Preferred Stock represented by the surrendered certificate.

3.3.9 Replacement. Upon receipt of evidence reasonably satisfactory to the Corporation (an affidavit of the registered holder shall be satisfactory) of the ownership and the loss, theft, destruction or mutilation of any certificate evidencing shares of Preferred Stock, and in the case of any such loss, theft or destruction, upon receipt of indemnity reasonably satisfactory to the Corporation (provided that if the holder is a financial institution or other institutional investor its own agreement shall be satisfactory), or, in the case of any such mutilation upon surrender of such certificate, the Corporation shall (at its expense) execute and deliver in lieu of such certificate a new certificate of like kind representing the number of Shares of such class represented by such lost, stolen, destroyed or mutilated certificate and dated the date of such lost, stolen, destroyed or mutilated certificate, and dividends shall accrue on the Preferred Stock represented by such new certificate from the date to which dividends have been fully paid on such lost, stolen, destroyed or mutilated certificate.
