Subj: Late annual report

I write this letter to ask for help. I had no idea that my annual report was overdue until I received the notice in the mail telling me that I now owed $550.00. My wife and I were shocked by the size of the penalty. Some kind woman in your office told me to let you know that I was not intentionally late. If you check your records you'll see that I have never been late since we have been in business. I am doing as she directed and am sending the original $150.00 in hope that the late charge can be waived this one time. I have taken steps to insure that this will never happen again.

Yours

Richard L. Herr
