On this date I was notified by my accountant that check # 5800 written on April 11th, 2002 in the amount of $150.00 had never cleared the bank. According to the information on the check ledger it was written in the amount of $150.00 to the Dept. of State for 2002 UBR. This was noticed by my accountant in the process of her filling out my quarterly reports.

I immediately phoned Mr. Matt Andrews who instructed me to write a letter explaining why you had not received my UBR filing fee. At this time he instructed me to fill out the 2nd notice UBR form and send in the $150.00. In the eleven years I have had this corporation I have never neglected to send in my renewal and filing fee. Mr. Andrews said that under the circumstances that the late fee could be waived. I appreciate the benefit of the doubt and apologize for the lateness of payment.

Respectfully,

Lita Miller-Olmos
