To whom it may concern,

The last week of July I received my Annual Report package and it stated that it was my second notice. Knowing the importance of filing this report on time, it concerned me getting a second notice. We are extreemly conscientious about filing any and all reports on time, due to the large penalites incurred by filing late. I looked through my check stubs to verify any payment made and couldn't find anything. I honestly feel I never received the first notice and would appreciate your consideration on waiving the penalty.

Sincerely,

Marie L. Riggs
