Dear Sir or Madam:

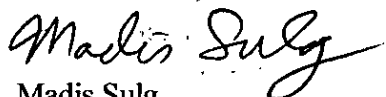

Pursuant to a recent telephone conversation with Michelle in your office, we are requesting waiver of the $ 600 Reinstatement Fee. Our Company, Mullins-South, Inc. (Florida document number S79922, FEI number 593090487) had been administratively dissolved for failure to file annual reports.

The Company has also been involved in the Chapter 7 bankruptcy case of Mr. John Robert Mullins (Case Number 98-50517 in the Western District of North Carolina). On March 6, 2002, the Honorable J. Craig Whitley, United States Bankruptcy Judge, issued an order granting the Chapter 7 bankruptcy trustee, Mr. Barrett L. Crawford, ownership and control of Mullins-South, Inc. Subsequent to the issuance of that order, Mr. Crawford as the now sole shareholder of Mullins-South, Inc., elected Madis Sulg as the sole Director and President of Mullins-South, Inc.

Subsequently, with the full backing and authority of the bankruptcy court we have been able to secure all available Mullins-South, Inc., Corporate records and files. These records and files do not contain any materials indicating that the Company had ever been notified of its requirement to file current annual reports and of its administrative dissolution by your office. As soon as we were able to ascertain the Company's current status, we initiated the attached request for Corporation Reinstatement.

Please advise as to what additional information you need at this time in order to process our request. In the interim, thank you, in advance, for your timely attention and assistance.

Sincerely yours,
Mullins-South, Inc.

Madis Sulg
President and Director
