Re: Acme Consultants International, Inc.
S 82623

Thank you for the information you provided when I called on Wednesday, November 1, 2000. As I explained, the stock of the company was sold to my client, Richard T. Escobar on October 1, 1999. A certificate of good standing which was dated October 26, 1999, was received from your office.

We did not file the return by the original due date because we did not receive the renewal form from the Department of State. We have contacted the former owners, who still reside at the address in your records, and they have advised us that they received no correspondence from you until the Notice of Administrative Dissolution was received.

It is not our intention to dissolve this corporation and we would have filed timely had we received the renewal notice.

We respectfully request that the late filing fees and costs be waived due to the circumstances involved. Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

David A. Young, Jr.
