Dear Ms. Sellers;

This letter is to explain that on April 7, 1995, my father, Seymour Z. Frischer, past away and no longer was President of Consumer Discount Services.

My father at that time left me his 50% of the business and my husband, Oscar Leyva became the new President.

We did forward the new address and information but somehow the unit number was not added to your records and we never received the renewal.

I appreciate all of your assistance on helping me straighten the problem out and correcting the address.

I am quite new at all of this and I am still trying to learn.

Thank you for your patients and understanding in this matter.

Sincerely,

Arnette A. Leyva
